

Resurrection Athletic Blast – February 1, 2018

Wrigley Field Concessions Stand (Volunteers Needed) – The Resurrection Athletics Booster Club has been presented with an opportunity to work a Concession Stand for 20 home games next season. A percentage of the profits from the concessions stand would be donated by the Cubs back to the Resurrection Athletics Booster Club. Twelve volunteers (including 1 Leader) are needed for each game. If interested in participating, please attend our next Athletics Booster Club meeting on February 7th at 6:30pm.

Bowling Is GCAC Champs Again – Both JV and Varsity Bowling won the GCAC this past Saturday. Congratulations to both the JV and Varsity bowling teams on winning the GCAC Conference Championship on Saturday, January 27th at Arena Bowl in Oak Lawn. It was a total team effort at both levels. Kathleen Serrano was the individual champion of the tournament today averaging 176, followed by teammate Sammi Dahlstrom who finished 2nd averaging 172. Mairead Dunne was 4th averaging 167. Sam Stefanski was the individual JV champion averaging 163, teammate Cassidy Yarwood was 3rd averaging 139. Congratulations go out to Varsity bowlers Janna George, Kathleen Serrano and Kayla Vargas who were named to the GCAC ALL CONFERENCE TEAM. Congratulations on another Championship season. If you see the girls in the hall please congratulate them. This was quite an accomplishment! Good luck at the upcoming Regionals!

Basketball Wins In Last Home Game – Basketball got a huge win against Carmel in their last home game on January 23rd with strong play from two sophomores. Samantha Saldana hit multiple three-pointers and Madison Dorband hit two free throws late to send the game to overtime. Madison then hit two free throws at the end of overtime to seal the win for the Bandits. Congratulations also to the team's win on January 31st at Glenbard North! Upcoming games against Trinity and Maine East are coming up before our Conference Champs head to Regionals.
