

Resurrection Athletic Blast – May 8, 2018

Soccer Heads into Playoffs – The soccer team finished second in Conference, and will now turn their attention toward the playoffs. Resurrection will face off on Tuesday, May 15th against Vernon Hills. The game will be at 6:00 pm at Ridgewood High School.

Track Has Strong Performance at League Meet – The track team had a strong performance at the League Meet finishing in third place on Saturday, May 5th. The team will look for its top athletes to qualify for State at the Sectional Meet this Wednesday. Please come out and support the track team if you are able. The meet is at 3:00 pm at Hansen Stadium, located at 5501 W. Fullerton Avenue, Chicago 60639.

Lacrosse Wins in OT – Lacrosse defeated Hoffman Estates in overtime last Saturday. The team is hoping to gain momentum late in the season. Lacrosse will host Trinity on Senior Night this Wednesday, and then will host a playoff game on Monday, May 21st. The program is hoping that a home playoff win, combined with the JV team continuing to have a special season (only 1 loss), will set the program up for success in years to come.

Softball Defeats Niles North – Softball defeated Niles North over the weekend. It is an exciting upcoming week for the Bandits as JV enters the League Tournament as a #3 seed, and Varsity hosts St. Laurence on Senior Night on Thursday. We look forward to an exciting week of softball.

Softball Field Advertisement Space – The Athletic Booster Club is selling advertising space on the fence along the Softball Field. Check out details about Sponsorships HERE and view the Softball Field Sponsorship Form to place an order. We have one sponsorship sign so far as well as four signs making an outline celebrating our Bandits!
