On Friday, February 16, 2018, Resurrection College Prep High School's Mathematics Department and the Resurrection Math Club sponsored the Young Women's Math Olympics. The competition allowed 6th, 7th and 8th grade girls to compete in the area of Algebra and Geometry and participate in math related games and activities. The Math Olympics have been an annual event at Resurrection and the school encourages young women to challenge themselves in all academic areas and explore math, science and technology related fields.

"At Resurrection, we have so many opportunities for students to explore applications of math, including AP math classes in which students can earn college credit," said Resurrection Curriculum Coordinator of Math and Technology Karen Groszek. "The contest is a great way to help us promote excitement about math with younger girls." Over 120 girls from 19 area schools competed in the Young Women's Math Olympics contest at Resurrection. Schools represented included: Beaubien Elementary, Culver Elementary, Edgebrook Elementary, Edison Park Elementary, Immaculate Conception, Lincoln Middle School, MCC Academy, Onahan Elementary, Oriole Park Elementary, Pope Francis Global Academy, Prussing Elementary, Resurrection College Prep High School is a Catholic Christian community dedicated to the education of young women, and to the development of their God-given talents.
