Reminders for students -

Students are expected to be in all scheduled classes to take class final exams or to participate in the planned learning activities. This does not apply to seniors who have earned an exemption from that particular final exam. Students with a study during the first or last period of an exam day do not need to be in school during that exam time. Students who will be in the building during a study need to report to either the library or to the cafeteria. On Thursday, May 24 the library will be closed for make-up AP testing. Students who have a study for Period 4 must be in the building and must report to the cafeteria. Attendance will be taken. Once exams have begun, students will not be able to enter the academic wing of the building to get to their lockers or to a teacher's classroom. On exam days, students may wear Res spirit apparel in accordance with the guidelines in the student handbook.
