Basketball Hosts Special Appreciation Nights – Bandit Basketball is hosting a series of special appreciation night events. Yesterday was Teacher Appreciation Night and tomorrow, Thursday, December 6th is Student Appreciation Night. Admission will be free for Resurrection students with a school ID.

Bowling Defeats Rival Trinity in Opener – JV and Varsity bowling defeated Trinity in their first league match of the season. Both teams sit at 1-0 atop the standings of the GCAC. Varsity was led by Janna George and Samantha Stefanski. JV had strong performances from Alena Manos and Skylar Wilke.

Bowling Defeats Marist – JV easily defeated athletic powerhouse Marist in bowling last week. Varsity had a strong comeback to win as well, as they were down early. The team is undefeated on the season in league matches!

Bowling Defeats De La Salle – Varsity and JV bowling won again to move to 3-0 on the season in league play.

Basketball Continues to Play Hard – Last Saturday basketball participated in a school matchup at St. Pats, with both teams taking on Taft in the same day. Both gyms were utilized and the game crowds between both schools were fun for all involved. JV basketball won a tight one by two points. Gianna Morales and Jocelyn Fleming were the high scorers. The freshmen played what many would consider to be their best game of the season. The team was down 14-0 and 22-2 before mounting an incredible comeback to get within 1-point at 27-26. The freshmen eventually fell by six to Taft, but it was a great game. The wheels fell off for Varsity a bit, losing big to Taft. It will be a learning experience for the team, and they will come back stronger as they enter GCAC play.

Concessions Help Needed – The concessions stand needs volunteers for basketball games on December 11th. If you can help please sign up on Sign-Up-Genius.
