

Thomasetta Czajkowski Solak '58 Scholarship

The Thomasetta Czajkowski Solak Scholarship is dedicated to the memory of Thomasetta (Tomi) Czajkowski Solak '58, who was a prolific decorative painter. This $1000 scholarship has been established by Tomi's family and friends to help young women further their talents in art, leadership, and self-expression. Applicant must demonstrate involvement in the visual arts, be academically motivated, show initiative and leadership and exhibit financial need.

Thomasetta lived passionately and loved deeply. A long-time student of Resurrection Academy and a 1958 graduate of Resurrection High School, she provided support to those in need, always displaying unwavering strength which was deeply rooted in her faith, love and devotion for her family and friends. She was a dedicated Marine wife and devoted mother to her children. She loved to travel, learn, cook, entertain, draw and paint. In her early years, she attended the Chicago Art Institute with her father and in retirement painted creatively. While raising and sending her four children to college, she earned her Bachelor of Psychology degree from George Mason University.

Thomasetta delighted in showering gifts on those she loved, each gift chosen or often made with care. She was generous in sharing her time, talents and treasure, her listening ear, her advice and her love.
