DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD TO RESURRECTION ENGLISH TEACHER

Resurrection English teacher Noreen Maluchnik
selected as a recipient of the Distinguished Service Award

Resurrection College Prep High School English teacher Noreen Maluchnik has been selected as a recipient of the Distinguished Service Award by the Archdiocese of Chicago Board of Catholic Schools. Ms. Maluchnik, Chair of the Resurrection English Department, will be honored at a dinner on March 11, 2012 at the Chicago Marriott.

Ms. Maluchnik has been on the faculty of Resurrection College Prep High School for thirty-seven years. She currently teaches British and World Literature and Advanced Placement Literature and Language Composition courses to junior and senior students. Ms. Maluchnik holds a B.A. from Loyola University and an M.S. from Dominican University. She has been selected for the Distinguished Service Award in recognition for her years in Catholic education, for her accomplishments as an educator and for her ability to inspire her students. She has the respect and admiration of students, parents, colleagues and many former students. "Because of her life-long commitment to Catholic education and her dedication to Resurrection's motto of Charity and Truth, every girl that graduates from Resurrection has been touched by Noreen Maluchnik," said Resurrection President/Principal Dr. Lynne Saccaro. "Her files are thick with more Influential Teacher commendations, hand-written letters and now e-mails of appreciation for the impact Ms. Maluchnik has had on our graduates' lives. She is most deserving of this prestigious award."

Resurrection College Prep High School, located at 7500 West Talcott Avenue in Chicago, is the largest all-girls Catholic, Christian college preparatory high school on the north side of Chicago. Since its founding in 1922, Resurrection has graduated over 13,000 alumnae. For more information about Resurrection College Prep High School, call 773.775.6616 Ext 129 or visit www.reshs.org.
